Russia Claims Dog in Orbit Returned Safe

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union announced today it placed in orbit and returned safely to earth a space ship containing a dog.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the dog, named Chernushka, and "other biological subjects" had been safely retrieved through the earth's atmosphere.

The space ship weighed 4,700 kilograms, or slightly more than five tons.

The Tass broadcast said the space ship, after "the fulfillment of the planned program," had been landed successfully "in the required area of the Soviet Union." It added:

"The dog's condition is normal."

Test Flight Seems to Please All

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The successful 200-mile test flight of a Redstone missile has pleased both Army and U.S. man-in-space officials.

An Army team launched the rocket Wednesday night. Primary goal of the test was to check devices which in wartime would automatically arm and fuse the nuclear warhead after the missile is well on its way to target.

An American astronaut is expected to ride a Redstone within two months on a flight which will take him 115 miles high and 290 miles down range.

Ham, the space chimp, was launched on a similar flight course Jan. 31. However, a malfunction in the thrust regulator resulted in boosting Ham's space capsule higher and farther than intended in the upper atmosphere.

At Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., an atmospheric study was made by an Aerobee-300 research rocket fired 190 miles high.

The 42-foot rocket was fired to determine the density and distribution of ultraviolet rays, ions and other.

Oster's boarding attempt ended in ignominious failure when his canon capsized. Rusk Gives Reassurance to Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the United States fully intends to maintain its position on Berlin. But he would not say for what period of time that policy will prevail.

Rusk said the Berlin problem must be looked at in the context of the whole problem of Germany's future.

He declined to discuss either the specific issue of a troop cut in Berlin or the general problems of a broad German settlement, indicating these are under review.

At a news conference, the second he has held since taking office Jan. 20, Rusk also made these other points mainly in response to specific questions:

1. A very serious situation would be created if the Red China issue in the United Nations resulted in receiving Chinese Communist representatives and ousting Chinese Nationalists on the ground that the matter was purely a credentials question. Rusk said that actually the matter of Red Chinese membership is a problem of far-reaching political importance.

2. The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union should be able to reach agreement on a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests if negotiations, resuming March 21, are conducted on all sides in good faith. Rusk said the United States is determined to conclude a pact if possible; he said it must be one which protects the security interests of the United States.

3. The crisis in Laos is still under negotiation among the interested governments, which include the Soviet Union. Rusk denied there is a real stalemate though he conceded in response to questions that the Soviet airlift is continuing to supply Communist rebel forces and a substantial amount of arms has been built up.

4. The U.S. government under-

No Voter's List in the Ballot Boxes

DE VALLS BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — No voter lists were found when a Prairie County Grand Jury opened the ballot boxes in an election investigation Wednesday.

The jury directed new Circuit Clerk Billy Garth to search for the lists and report back to it.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner of Lonoke said the jury subpoenaed four ballot boxes from the Nov. 8 general election and the Dec. 6 school election from Hazen and Lower Hill townships.

Court officials said no lists were found in the Hazen boxes.

In an earlier investigation, a check of several ballot boxes in the Aug. 9 Democratic primary also failed to produce the lists which are required by law.

The earlier inquiry was over a contest between former Sen. Jerry J. Scretton of Hazen, the apparent primary victor, and J. T. Guntler of Auslin in the 19th Senatorial District contest.

Scretton was subsequently defeated in the general election by write-in candidate Charles L. George of Cabot.

Shortage of Food Critical in Red China

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Severe food shortages in Communist China may back industrial expansion and divert more resources to agriculture, the Foreign Agriculture Service said today.

In a lengthy analysis of the Chinese food situation, the service said Communist leaders had overstressed drought, floods, typhoons, hail, storms, frost, insects and plant diseases as causes of shortages.

That raises the question, the agency said, of whether the Red Chinese leaders are attempting to alibi mistakes and exports of foods needed at home.

The analysis said the Chinese rulers have played up natural calamities to create the proper mood for turning work battalions to flood control and water conservation projects.

"At the time of this writing, one month after the close of 1960," said the service, "it now seems most likely that what Communist China faces is, at best, a developing situation in which the regime is extremely hard pressed and the situation will get worse before getting better."

The service said many observers doubt China's policy of starving agriculture for the sake of heavy industry can be made to work over the long haul.

Already there have been hints, the agency said, that the Chinese regime is moving in the direction of diverting more resources to agriculture.

Winter Takes Parting Lick, 18 Are Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Of man winter's parting blast at the Midwest, where up to 16 inches of snow paralyzed traffic, closed schools and caused at least 18 deaths, faded into the Northeast today.

Grudgingly relinquishing its fury, the storm spewed snow, rain and sleet today over New York state and into Southern New England.

It appeared that a storm of major proportion was building up in upper New York state. Many up-state areas counted from 5 to 10 inches of snow in the early hours of the day and the fall continued.

The snow, rain and sleet made driving hazardous in many sections of the state.

South of this storm area, it was raining.

Snow flurries still dotted portions of the Midwest today. The clean-up process was slow. The snowfall that ranged from 6 to 16 inches, with drifts piled up 2 feet and higher along highways, had narrowed down over Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Southern Wisconsin got 8 to 12 inches of snow, forcing the closing of many schools and factories. Countless roads became impassable.

Eleven deaths were blamed on the snow in Wisconsin—all from heart attacks induced by overexertion while shoveling or plodding through snow.

Illinois counted 3 deaths attributed to the storm, and Michigan and Nebraska had 2 each.

South of the snow, thunderstorms and heavy rain raged across parts of the Deep South. A rash of tornadoes hit Georgia, causing an estimated $1 million in damages. There were no reports of death or injuries.

In Tennessee, scattered flooding Wednesday in the Knoxville, McMinnville and Shelbyville areas forced dozens of families to higher ground. The Mississippi River was expected to flood in the western part of the state today.

10 States Not to Take Part in Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials of at least 10 states, including Arkansas, have expressed the opinion their states may not participate in the proposed federal aid program for needy children of jobless parents' government sources reported today.

These federal officials named the other states as Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Mississippi, North Dakota, Nebraska, South Carolina, South Dakota and Virginia.

They emphasized they do not regard the states as having flatly decided they will not take part.

The federal officials said state welfare chiefs expressed their opinions in response to an inquiry from Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff.

The state officials who were of the opinion their states would not take part, generally were described as basing their view on the scarcity of money to meet the requirement that states match the federal funds.

The proposed $305 million program is scheduled for House consideration.

Faubus' Bill One of 3 on The Ballot

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus' latest anti-integration proposal and proposals to increase official salaries and expand taxing power of cities will be on the 1962 general election ballot.

The lineup of the three proposed constitutional amendments the legislature may submit was assured today—the last day of the session—when the Senate approved 30-4 the salary measure, which also would reduce the number of justices of the peace.

The Senate earlier had approved the other two proposed amendments, which the House voted Wednesday to submit.

After approving the salary measure, the Senate voted 30-0 for a three-approved proposal to authorize use of voting machines.

Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, the Senate sponsor, said this was merely a complimentary vote to club women who have worked for the voting machines.

"It will give them a vote of confidence so they can go out and start working for a constitutional amendment two years from now—and I hope they will," Fagan said.

Before any vote was taken, U.S. Gov. Nathan Gordon explained that the first three constitutional measures approved by both branches would get places on the ballot. He also said that the procedure was to call for a vote first the measures recommended for passage by a joint committee on constitutional amendments.

The salary measure was recommended by this committee, but the voting machine amendment was not. The city taxing amendment also was approved by the committee.

The committee's third recommendation went to a proposal which later was withdrawn by its House sponsor to allow Faubus' anti-integration measure to get on the ballot.

Faubus' measure would declare that no child should be denied a free public education because of refusal to attend an integrated school.

The child would have to assure the school board that such attendance would be detrimental to his welfare, but no standards for such a determination are set out.

A Faubus-backed proposal to permit local option closing of schools against threatened integration was rejected by a vote of about 3 to 1 at the last general election.

Also defeated in that election was a measure to raise salary limits. The new salary plan would set up five classes of counties according to population and fix salaries of officials within each.

Adlai Faces Big Test in UN Assembly

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson today faced the first big test of his U. N. career as he tried to persuade the Soviets to drop their demand for a disarmament debate at the current assembly session.

The U. S. delegation claimed wide support in its campaign to trim the assembly docket to only essential housekeeping items, giving the Kennedy administration a breathing space in which to formulate new policies on disarmament and other major East-West issues.

But a U. S. spokesman indicated the Soviets were insisting on a full assembly debate on Premier Khrushchev's call for total disarmament.

To win the Soviets away from this declared stand would boost U. S. prestige in the 98-nation forum and strengthen Stevenson's hand in future international exchanges.

The new U. S. delegate already has won favor among many smaller nations with his approachability and friendly interest in their problems. But now they want to see how he makes out across the negotiating table from the Soviets.

Stevenson reportedly urged the Soviets to shelve assembly discussion on the controversial arms question until the next assembly in September and devote the interim months to quiet negotiations.

The British have been giving Stevenson strong support in his drive to pare down the assembly agenda, but they feel it is up to the American delegate to do the final selling job.

The 46 Asian-African nations, a pivotal force in any U. N. negotiations, also favor lopping armory-provoking items off the agenda, but they insist on seeing some concrete sign of U. S.-Soviet agreement before spelling out their own position.

The Soviet Union has insisted that if any items are cut from the agenda, they should be such issues as Hungary and Tibet. If those two anti-Communist complaints are discarded, the Soviets indicated they would scrap their charges against U. S. reconnaissance flights.

It received an application from KVMIA in Magnolia, Ark., to increase power from 1 to 3 kilowatts.

Measure Sets Flat Rates of $5 and $22

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The House passed by one vote a bill to raise most car license fees shortly before it adjourned today. But Pike County Rep. Alvis Stokes said someone had voted for him on the voting machine.

Stokes put into the record moments before adjournment a statement that he was out of the chamber when the vote was taken.

This raised a legal question as to whether the bill had passed. Speaker John P. Bethell said Stokes' action would have no effect on the outcome of the vote since the House journal cannot be changed once a vote is recorded. However, it is illegal for another person to vote for a representative on his machine.

Bethell had to cast the vote which gave the measure the 51 it needed to pass.

Bethell left the roll call machine open for some time while supporters of the bill yelled for votes.

The machine showed only 47 aye votes to 32 against. Reps. B. S. Hinkle of Scott County, Pat Teague of Carroll County and Jack Oakes of Woodruff County added aye votes by voice and the speaker quickly cast the deciding ballot before he announced the vote.

Some House members questioned whether since the bill was a tax measure, it would require 75 votes to pass. Bethell announced that the attorney general's office had ruled only 51 were needed. There was no explanation of the ruling.

The bill sets a flat fee of $15 for cars under 4,100 pounds and $22 for cars over that weight. Present fees are figured under a complicated formula which sets the price in a range from $7 for the smallest foreign car to $25 for the largest American make.

Desha County Rep. E. E. Hopson explained the bill, saying it would enable the Revenue Department to save $20,000 a year now being spent for figuring fees under the formula.

There was no estimate of how much additional revenue the bill would produce. License fees are credited to the state highway fund.

The House, as it hurried toward final adjournment at noon, passed a bill to increase burial benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law from $250 to $500. "You can't bury anybody today for $250," Pulaski County Rep. Continued on Page Four

Auto Junkyards Bill Is Passed

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas House today passed a Senate bill to outlaw automobile graveyards located within 1,000 feet of a paved highway.

The vote was 78-4 on the bill, which replaces a 1959 law ruled unconstitutional by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The old law prohibited auto graveyards within one-half mile of a highway. Yell County Rep. Boss Mitchell, floor leader for the bill, explained that the Supreme Court objected to the distance.

Mitchell told House members the court might approve the 1,000 foot provision but later said privately that he did not see why it would.

A Senate bill to exempt fire department members from civil liability for injuries, deaths or property damage caused while fighting fires passed 71-7.

Actress Is Believed Much Better

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor felt so much better today that she needed her doctors to let her leave the hospital. "Her doctors took this as an excellent sign," said one of her close friends at the London Clinic. "She's virtually off the danger list," said the film beauty's personal physician, Dr. C. H. Goldman, "and will probably be taken off it tonight."

"She complains about being in some pain," he added. "This was also looked on as a good sign that her reactions were returning to normal."

Goldman said the stricken star—making steady progress in her fight against pneumonia in both lungs—may be able to leave the hospital in "about two weeks."

Encouraged by her progress, Miss Taylor's physicians stopped feeding her through a vein in her ankle.

She was still unable to eat, however, and this morning was being fed through a "gastric tube" in her nose.

Dr. Goldman said the star's condition is so much better that she also is having much less oxygen than before. She began breathing Wednesday without the aid of the electronic lung that had synchronized the flow of oxygen with her own breathing, but oxygen was still being given her through the tube inserted in her windpipe last weekend when she was rushed to the hospital.

Miss Taylor, 29, sent three notes from the London Clinic Wednesday to her three children by her previous marriages to Michael Wilding and Mike Todd. The notes—one each to Michael Wilding Jr., 8, Christopher Wilding, 5, and Liza Todd, 3—said: "You'll be able to come and see me soon."

They were taken to the children in the family's Dorchester Hotel suite by Miss Taylor's husband, singer Eddie Fisher. It was the first time Fisher had returned to the hotel since his wife was rushed to the London Clinic Friday night.

Man Held for Bomb Scare

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Cecil C. Childress, 58, of Memphis was charged by the FBI with causing a bomb scare at Little Rock's Adams Field Wednesday. He appeared before U.S. Commissioner John E. Coates and was released on his own bond.

The FBI reported that Childress, a representative of a nationwide food distributor, handed a Braniff Airlines stewardess a package as he boarded a flight for Memphis and Miami and said it "could be a bomb."

The stewardess reported the incident to the plane's captain who had Childress removed. The flight was delayed 12 minutes.

Childress is officially charged with violating the destruction of aircraft and motor vehicle statute which carries a penalty of a $1,000 fine, a year in prison or both.

Wants Help for Certain Mines

DENVER (AP)—An industry-wide subsidy for domestic lead-zinc mine production is being urged by International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, headquartered in Denver.

The independent union said it had presented the union's program in a prepared statement Wednesday to the Mining and Minerals Subcommittee of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs which is conducting hearings in Washington, D. C.

John Clark, union president, said its program offers the most reasonable and realistic approach to solving the chronic depression of the lead-zinc industry.

He proposed an industry-wide subsidy which would apply to an annual production of 350,000 tons of lead and 550,000 tons of zinc.

Youth Still Missing in Snowstorm

WINTHROP, Iowa (AP)—While an air and ground search for a farm boy missing in the wake of Iowa's worst snowstorm of the season continued, officials today began checking possibility of foul play.

Deputy Sheriff Ray Moline said Jimmy Franck, 4, was missing before the storm actually hit this area Tuesday afternoon and that the vicinity of his farm home had been thoroughly searched by volunteer searchers without any

DOROTHY DIX Husband Wants Wife To Face Truth

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

It all began in 1949 when my wife and I married without her father's consent. He has done everything to break us up. In 1955 my wife left me for another man. I forgave her and took her back. Under her Dad's persuasion she has left me several times more. Now I caught her running around with another man again so we will wind up in the divorce court soon. I wish someone could talk to her. Will you in your column? —G. W. J.

Dear Mrs. G. W. J.: This is addressed to you when you married, you promised to assume all the responsibilities of being a wife. If, as your husband says, you left him for other men, then you've broken your word. You, more than anyone else in this whole world, will suffer for this. By so doing you have failed in character and the ability to keep your word — the most valuable assets a human being possesses. Without them you are indeed bankrupt morally.

For your own sake, mend the broken word. Accept your responsibilities. Be true to your word and — yourself! Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Keystones of the Home."

Dear Helen:

I am 14, of Chinese origin, and have been going for two years with a girl my own age but not race. We both work and live at our respective homes.

Because of our parents' prejudice, we broke up five months ago. In the interim we met secretly four times. We love one another deeply and plan to marry at the age of 21. How can I make due to his whereabouts. All outbuildings on the farm operated by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Franck have been checked, but no trace of the Franck's son has been found.

Sheriff Emery Hart said several persons had reported seeing a strange car in the area Tuesday and hinted there was some possibility that the kid had been picked up by strangers.

Volunteer searchers pressed the hunt throughout this neighborhood, hundreds joining in the effort. High winds and heavy snow hampered them.

The father first discovered the boy was missing when he returned to the farmhouse about 5 p. m. The family notified the sheriff three hours later after they had hunted for the boy.

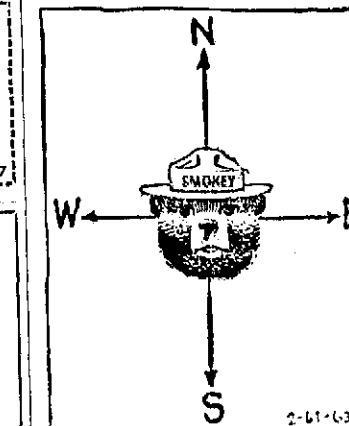

"The Francks have two other boys and a daughter.

Jimmy is about 3 feet tall, weighs about 36 pounds and was dressed in a tan parka, blue denim, snow pants and gloves.

The boy had been with his father in their farmyard Tuesday until he complained about feeling cold and started for the house, about 30 feet away.

The Franck farm is about five miles northwest of Winthrop.

$1.25 Hour Cut Slightly in Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Labor Committee today approved a slightly watered-down version of the administration's minimum wage proposal.

A full week has been set aside in the House beginning March 20 for consideration of the highly controversial measure. A month was required to get it through committee.

The bill that finally emerged would raise the present $1-an-hour minimum to $1.15. Two years later it would automatically go to $1.25 unless the next Congress acted to prevent it. An intermediate step in one year from $1.15 to $1.20 was eliminated.

The bill would also extend coverage to 4,311,000 workers now exempt from minimum wage legislation, most of them in large retail and service firms. This is about what the administration requested.

One Republican—Rep. Charles E. Goodell of New York—voted with 18 Democrats to send the bill to the House floor. One Democrat—Rep. Phil M. Landrum of Georgia—voted with 11 Republicans in opposition.

In its final session on the bill the committee removed 400,000 hotel, motel and restaurant workers from the section extending coverage. They had been put in by the committee Tuesday.

A stiff fight is expected when the measure reaches the floor. Republicans succeeded last year with the help of Southern Democrats—in limiting the wage increases to $1.15 and new coverage to 1.5 million. They are prepared to offer a similar substitute this year.

would your own parents. Convince them you like them for their own sake before you ever broach the subject of marriage to their daughter.

Dear Helen:

Six weeks ago a friend passed on. She had been married 32 years, was a faithful wife and the mother of four children. The husband is 55. Three weeks later he married a second time. My blood runs cold. What do you think? —A Faithful Reader

Dear Faithful Reader: Certainly this husband was either insane or in shock, else he could not — and would not — marry so soon after his wife's death. To say the least, he shows bad taste. But don't get me wrong. The very fact that he married again proves he was happy in his first marriage. His only mistake is timing.

Elston Howard Attends Breakfast
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Elston Howard, New York Yankee catcher, was the only Negro who attended the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce breakfast for major league players at the St. Petersburg Yacht Club today. Also in attendance were 47 white players from the St. Louis Cardinals and Yankee clubs.

The annual breakfast jumped into the limelight late Wednesday when Bill White, Cardinal first baseman, said the lowliest white rookies were invited but that no Negro star had received a bid. Richard A. Parker, chairman of the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce, immediately issued a personal invitation to all the Negro players.

Jim Toomey, Cardinal publicity director, took the blame "for a misunderstanding" regarding the guests.

Big 9 Teams Find Going Too Tough

By VINCE FOSTER

Hope Star Sports Editor

The Hope Bobcats outplayed and outscored the Big Nine Pine Bluff Zebras 70-47 yesterday afternoon at Barton Coliseum in Little Rock in the AA-AAA State Tournament. The Cats will meet Harrison at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. The quarter-finals.

The Bobcats, probably nervous, were a little slow starting off and trailed in the first quarter until Eddie Fry, who took the first two points, put Hope out front 12-11 by a pair of free throws with a minute left. The quarter ended Hope 14, Pine Bluff 13. In the second quarter, due to the defense action of Curtis Churchwell and offensive threat of Fry and Glen Calhoun, the Bobcats increased their margin and a jump shot by Earl Ray Murphy on the buzzer left the score at intermission Hope 32-Pine Bluff 23.

The Zebras roared back at the half and closed the margin to three points after a couple of minutes, but then the full court zone press of the Cats began to take effect on the weary Zebras. After constant steals, rebounds, and unnatural shots the Bobcats made this Big 9 school look very small and pulled 14 points out front. Larry Arnett climaxed a terrific Hope quarter with a 20 foot set shot on the buzzer to give the Bobcats a 52-36 lead.

The Bobcats kept their poise in the final quarter and lead 66-47 as the second team, consisting David Porterfield, Jeffery Powell, T-Bo Roberts, Danny Hatfield, and Earl Ray Murphy came in with two minutes to go. The subs, bursting with energy, held the Zebras to no points while taking four on a Murphy jump shot and a Roberts driving hook.

Eddie Fry, playing probably his best game of the year, and Glen Calhoun led the Cats in scoring with 17 points. Curtis Churchwell sank 15, Gene Robinson 7, Larry Arnett 6, Earl Ray Murphy 4, and Danny Hatfield and T-Bo Roberts 2 each. Billy Gibbs added the losers with 20.

Hope has been the only AAA team to stay in this tourney and so far are tied with Fayetteville for the highest number of points for a single game. A large crowd of students and adults were on hand and it is hoped even more will travel to root for Hope tonight at 7:30 at Barton Coliseum.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Highly-touted Blytheville, champions of the Big Nine Conference, was toppled Wednesday by Harrison 61-53 in a first round game of the Class AA-AAA basketball tournament and eliminated from competition.

In night games, Fayetteville trounced a hapless Fairview of Camden squad 70-36 and Little Rock Central got by Paragould 53-49. Hope defeated Pine Bluff 70-47 in the other afternoon game. Fayetteville's starters played very little as substitution was the rule of the game. Fayetteville took command early in the game and was never hindered.

A fourth quarter zone defense effected by Catholic High almost paralyzed Paragould which trailed by only one point, 38-37, entering the fourth quarter. Catholic High allowed Paragould only three field goals and went on to victory.

Hartwell Roberts sparked a Harrison drive that overcame a Blytheville halftime lead of 29-26. Roberts was the game's leading point-getter with 22.

But it was the Chicks' fouling that gave the Gobins the game. Harrison picked up 15 points in the final period on Blytheville fouls.

Paul Hill sank 15 points for Harrison. Wes Crawford got 17 and Mickey Johnson 15 for the Chicks.

A second half rally by Pine Bluff closed Hope's lead to only three points but then momentum slowed and Hope surged to a 70-47 victory.

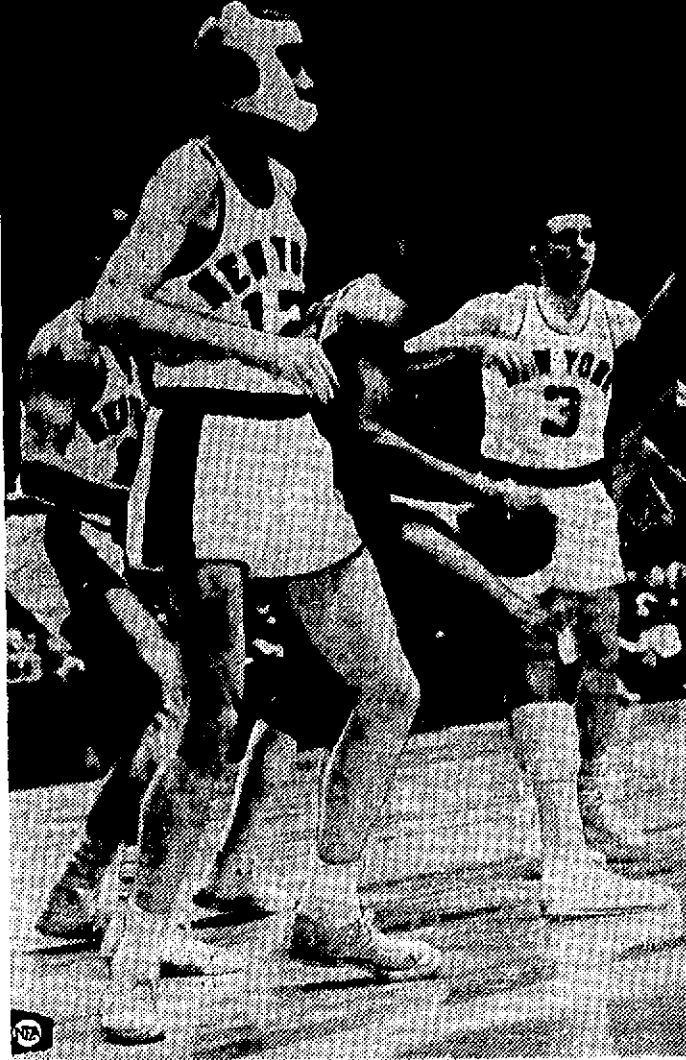

Billy Gibbs had 20 points for Pine Bluff to lead in scoring. Teammate Jerry Mayer hit for 12. Hope's Glenn Calhoun had 18 and Eddie Fry 17.

Today's quarterfinal schedule pairs Ft. Smith and Little Rock Central; Helena and Jonesboro in afternoon games; Harrison and Hope; Little Rock Catholic and Fayetteville in night tilts.

Adolph Rupp, Kentucky's barn of basketball, sends his rallying Wildcats against Vanderbilt tonight in a bid to enter the NCAA championships for a record 12th time.

Kentucky, which did an incredible turnaround after winning 14 of its first 15 games, and Vanderbilt meet on the University of Tennessee's neutral court at Knoxville in a play-off to determine the team the Southeastern Conference will send into the NCAA tournament.

The winner will advance to the semifinals of the NCAA regional tournament, Louisville March 17 to play the eventual winner of a first-round clash March 14 between Morehead's Ohio Valley Conference play-off champs and an at-large team, either Xavier of Ohio or Chicago Loyola. It could bring together the SEC designate and Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes who also will play in the Midwest regional the 17th and 18th.

In the Ivy League Penn may have caught Princeton's league champs looking ahead to their NCAA Eastern regional meeting with George Washington in New York next Tuesday. Penn, with Sid Amira scoring 23 points and Bob Miky 21, crushed the Tigers, 88-63 to clinch second place.

Greg Heath's tip-in with two seconds left gave Brown a 79-77 triumph over Dartmouth and enabled the Bruins to share third place with Yale, which was upset by Harvard 67-63. Cornell, winding up with a 14-10 record, went out of the league and established a school single-game mark by crushing Syracuse 107-79.

Duquesne, a tournament hopeful but uninvited. Wound up with a 14-7 record as Bob Slobodnik led the way with 28 points to defeat LaSalle 78-63.

The NCAA Small College Tournament involving 32 teams begins at eight scattered points from coast-to-coast with the eight winners of regional tournaments moving to the final showdown at Evansville, Ind., March 16-17-18.

Among the teams involved are Prairie View (Tex.), voted No. 1 small college team of the nation in the final weekly AP poll; defending champion Evansville, and the 2-3-4 finishers of last year's tourney, Chapman of California, Kentucky Wesleyan and Cornell of Iowa.

Both Think Jabs to Tell the Story

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Ingemar Johansson has his "hammer of Thor" right and Floyd Patterson has his "automatic hook," but both fighters believe a fundamental punch—the left jab—will be the key to victory Monday night.

The big Swedish ex-champion has ended his sparring practice with his trusty right and his not so reliable left. The next time he tries to unload either hand on a man it will be against Patterson, the heavyweight champion, at Miami Beach's Convention Hall Monday night in their third title fight.

Per custom, Ingo finished his boxing preparations early. He closed with a six round workout Wednesday against three sparring mates at Palm Beach. He will rest mostly until Monday to permit strength to flow into his body and arms. It worked the first time when he dethroned Patterson in three rounds. In the return bout it wasn't effective as Floyd blitzed him in the fifth round with a thunderous left hook.

Patterson worked three rounds, looking impressive in the only round in which he tried, Wednesday. Today he was to end his sparring with another three round drill. Ingo appeared sharp in his final six rounds.

Both have stated that the advantage will go to the one who moun's the attack first. And both said he left jab will be a vital factor.

China Won't Exchange Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Red China has turned down a new proposal by the United States for the two countries to exchange newsmen. The Reds made a new condition that the United States abandon Formosa.

The Kennedy administration thus suffered a rebuff in its first effort to find some way of beginning to break down barriers between the two countries.

The American proposal, officials said today, was designed to satisfy the Chinese Communist insistence on a reciprocal exchange of newsmen. Previously, the issue of reciprocity had been a major stumbling block. Now that the United States has, in effect, offered to give way on that demand, the Communist government has interposed a new and far more serious barrier.

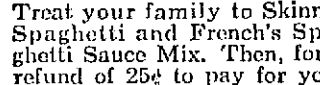

The proposal was put forth by U.S. Ambassador Jacob D. Beam in a meeting at Warsaw, Poland, Tuesday with Ambassador Wang Ping-Nan of Communist China.

They conferred for 85 minutes and agreed to meet again April 18. Their session Tuesday had been delayed for several weeks to give President Kennedy time to formulate new proposals to try to get U.S.-Red Chinese relations off dead center.

The State Department had disclosed in advance that it would present a full list of newsmen to Wang in the hope that this would

Adjournment Rush on in Legislature

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—With its calendar cleared of highly controversial matters, the Arkansas House headed today in the pre-adjournment rush of action on minor bills.

The only major action still facing the House is choice of three constitutional amendments for referral to the 1962 general election ballot.

Rep. Talbot Feild Jr. of Hempstead County, chairman of the House Constitutional Amendments Committee, said he would present a list of amendments for consideration this afternoon.

Feild's committee has recommended referral of amendments to raise the salaries of state and county officials, increase taxing powers of cities and to permit formation of industrial improvement districts.

However, the Senate already has adopted Gov. Orval E. Faubus' proposed amendment to guarantee that no child will lose his right to a free public education because he refuses to attend an integrated school. The House will consider this proposed amendment along with the other three. Only three can be referred to the ballot.

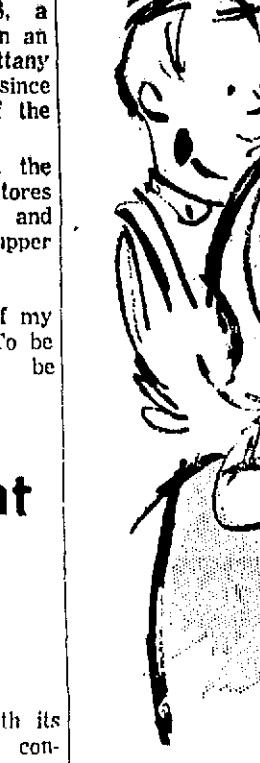

The House passed a Senate bill to permit afternoon racing one day a week at the Southland Greyhound Corp. track at West Memphis.

Crittenden County Rep. C. B. Nance said the change would bring in an additional $250,000 a year in racing taxes. Greyhound racing now is permitted only at night six days a week during two 50-day meetings.

Films Made Overseas Not So Good

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The troubles with "Cleopatra" underscore the movie industry's growing disenchantment with filming overseas. More and more, producers are coming to this conclusion: Unless there is a good reason not to, shoot it here.

Reason is that studios have some assurance in Hollywood that weather, working conditions and players' health will be fairly predictable. Whatever savings can be made by cheaper sets and extras abroad can be wiped out by lengthy delays, as with "Cleopatra."

The whole town has been wondering why 20th Century-Fox would try to film an Egyptian spectacle in an English winter. Equally puzzling is why MGM would plan exteriors of "Mutiny on the Bounty" during the Tahitian rainy season.

"Mutiny" finally got rained out and returned to Culver City for interiors. But another crisis struck with the switch of directors from Carol Reed to Lewis Milestone.

Bob Hope was in top form at the Producers Guild dinner honoring Adolph Zukor. Hope should be a lesson to all comics, politicians and public figures; whether his audience is 600 or 60 million, he always comes loaded with fresh, bright material.

Hope had a lot of fun kidding his fellow ski-nose, Richard M. Nixon. They sandwiched Gina Lollobrigida on the dais and Hope cracked: "We'd better not lean too close to this poor girl or we'll cut her to ribbons."

There was much talk about Nixon's seeking a new job. Hope remarked that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was more interested in playing golf. "Now he can find out who he can really beat."

Negro Population Drops in South

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas was one of four states to show a decline in Negro population in the last 10 years.

The Census Bureau said Tuesday that Arkansas had 388,787 Negroes in 1960, compared with 426,639 in 1950, a drop of 8.9 per cent.

Negroes made up 31 per cent of the state's total population loss of 200,000.

Country Cobbler Goes Modern

A fruit-rich Country Cobbler is yours for the making at any time of the year. Prepare it quickly and easily the Borden Kitchen way, by combining ready-to-use mince meat, mandarin orange sections and sour cherries, and using prepared pie crust mix. It's a dessert with a hearty full rich flavor that will appeal to appetites of young and old. And it calls for only 25 minutes of baking time. The recipe:

Country Cobbler

(Makes 8 to 10 servings)

- 1 (11-ounce) can mandarin oranges, drained
- 2 cups Ready-to-Use Nona Such Mince Meat, well drained
- 2 teaspoons flour
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 2 (1-pound, 4-ounce) cans sour cherries, drained
- 1 (5-ounce) stick instant mixing pie crust mix
- 2 tablespoons boiling water

Combine oranges and mince meat. Arrange in bottom of 8-inch square baking dish. Mix flour and sugar with cherries; pour over orange-mince meat mixture. Mix pie crust stick and water according to package directions; roll out pastry on floured surface to 8 1/4 inch square. Cut several slits in center of pastry to allow steam to escape. Arrange over fruit. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 25 minutes or until pastry is brown. Serve with ice cream or whipped cream.

Retirement System Bill Is Passed

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Senate today completed legislative action on a Teacher Retirement System bill without debate or dissent.

The Senate passed and sent to Gov. Orval E. Faubus a House measure to change the method of nominating the five teacher representatives who serve on the Teacher Retirement System board.

The bill provides that a candidate for the board could be nominated by a petition of not less than 25 teachers. One member would be elected at the state convention of the Arkansas Education Association, the other four by 123,329—6.5 per cent—from 1950 to 1960, the Bureau said.

On the basis of total number of Negroes and total number of whites, a greater percentage of Negroes left the state.

Mississippi had the largest loss of Negro population. West Virginia and Wyoming were the other states in which Negro population dropped.

Congo Leaders in Conference

TANANARIVE, Malagasy Republic (AP)—President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province opened a roundtable conference of Congo political leaders today with a proposal that they demand the withdrawal of U.N. forces from the Congo.

Outward Flow of Gold Has Been Slowed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration policies have already brought back to the United States some of the gold and dollars that had flowed overseas, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said today.

But Dillon warned the Joint Economic Committee against concluding that the problem is over. And he underlined the administration's interest in developing the kind of management-labor understandings that would keep the prices of American goods in competition with foreign-made articles.

Dillon told the committee that what he called the large-scale exodus of short-term capital last year, which fang alarm bells in U.S. government financial circles, was caused by differences in interest rates and speculation.

Dillon said President Kennedy's first task was to restore confidence and that the President did this with a pledge that the dollar price of gold would be maintained, and that his administration would move to stabilize the balance of payments.

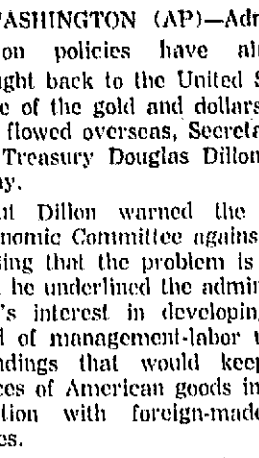

But, Dillon said, the administration knows it must press ahead with the long-range measures already laid down by the President, and, at the same time, seek common action with friendly foreign countries through the new organization for economic cooperation and development and other international agencies.

Dillon said the administration's final estimates on government receipts and expenditures for the year beginning July 1 are not yet ready, but that it is clear revenues "cannot help but be less than those projected in President Eisenhower's final budget message."

From Kennedy's chief economist, the committee received Monday an estimate that an upturn in business may come soon.

Chickens Are Best Buys at Market

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Broiling and frying chickens pop up as popular items in many supermarkets and neighborhood groceries this week.

Prices are down 2 to 17 cents a pound from last week over a fairly wide area, reflecting a better supply of birds. One chain offers fryers at 8 cents a pound less than a year ago in its New York metropolitan area stores.

Pork loin also is featured in a number of Eastern stores, while others offer a variety of cuts of beef, pork, lamb and fish items. Sirloin steak is down 4 to 6 cents a pound in some places, rib roast is mostly lower and vent chop and leg of lamb are cheaper in scattered sections.

Eggs, however, are marked down 2 to 11 cents a dozen in most areas. Large eggs are chopped more than pullets, narrowing the recent spread between them from as much as 22 cents to 8 cents.

Outstanding vegetable buys of the week are betts, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, medium yellow onions, parsley, old crop potatoes, radishes, spinach and sweet potatoes. Slightly higher, but still rated as good buys, are artichoke, beans, cauliflower, endive, escarole, various miscellaneous cooking greens, green onions, large yellow onions, peppers, green squash and watercress.

Oranges, grapefruit and such storage apples as McIntoshes and Romeys still are best buys in fruit.

Bargain hunters may find one in canned grapefruit juice, since Florida canners reportedly have cut prices to attract consumers as the heavy packing season begins.

Fellow Fooled With Wrong Car

DETROIT (AP) — Rodulus Wilcox' car was blocked by another in a private parking lot near Recorder's Court Tuesday.

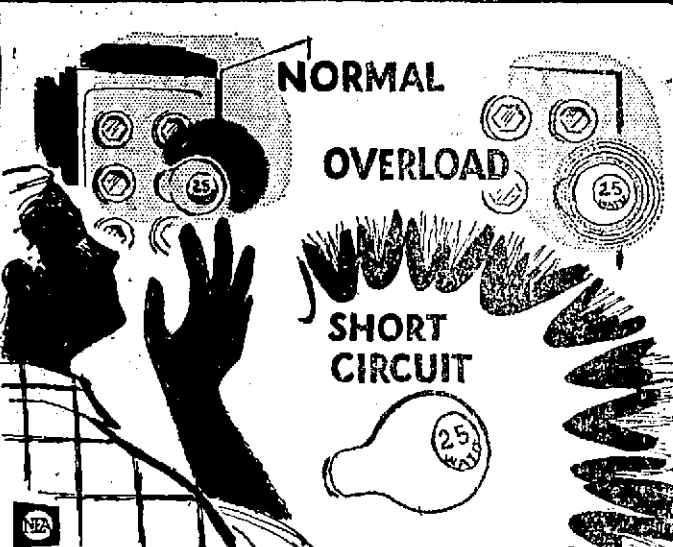

Wilcox, 43, opened a window of the other car, carefully took it out of gear, and began pushing it out of the way with a friend's help.

From a fifth floor window all this was observed by the car's owner—Judge W. McKay Skillman.

Police moved in. Wilcox appeared before the judge. The judge let him go without penalty — on Wilcox' promise to pay up on a delinquent traffic violation discovered in the process.

Owe the gang a treat? Whether the festivities are to be staged at noon or midnight, here's a tip from Beth Hunt of Pillsbury's Junior Home Service Center — make it a pancake party because it's a breeze to get together, and everybody loves pancakes!

Do-it-yourself pancake parties are the Most! Let the crowd make their own — in romantic duets or — for a switch — let the boys be the chefs for the occasion. All you need to do is line up enough griddles and electric skillets (borrowed from friends and neighbors) and set them up in the kitchen or recreation room, with a pitcher of batter and a spatula alongside each one. The batter is a cinch with Pillsbury's Buttermilk pancake mix.

The story: Chris Waddell has taken a wagon to the town of Marshall, a rough, lawless mining town. He meets an old friend named Frank Scobie.

Chapter IV

Scobie made an impatient gesture. "Belson was proud. Well, let me tell you something, friend Chris there's a time to be proud and a time to be smart. Which is something I've found out since you last saw me. Did you ever stop to think what men like you and me lay on the line every week we pack a badge? Just our skins—that's all. And for what, besides a few stinking dollars? Thanks, maybe? Don't make me laugh!"

Scobie got to his feet, took a turn up and down the office. "Chris, it's a dog's life and I wonder why we live it."

"Maybe," said Waddell slowly, "because of something you just mentioned. Pride, Frank—pride." "Pride!" scoffed Scobie. "What's that?"

"You know—once."

Scobie ceased his pacing, stood slumped and brooding. "Yeh, he mumbled presently, 'maybe I did.' He caught a hat off a wall and moved to the door. 'Come on. I need coffee—black coffee.'"

In the short time Waddell had been indoors, day had advanced rapidly. The camp was astir. Men, most of them miners in the rough earth and rock stained garb of their trade, showed in increasing numbers.

Frank Scobie, about to turn into an eating house under a sign that said simply Frenchy's, stopped abruptly and laid dark gaze toward the next building along, one of the street's largest, a two storied structure which carried a sign of its own. The Hill House. Above a short lift of stairs a galleried porch ran the full length of the place. A man had just crossed this porch to its outer edge and paused there to light a cigar.

Chris Waddell now brought his glance back to Scobie and was startled at what he saw there. Just a flash of feeling, gone almost as quickly as it came. But definitely raw hatred.

"Somebody you knew, Frank?" Waddell asked as they went into the eating house.

Evidently knowing the marshal's early eating habits, the man behind the counter poured a heavy mug of coffee and shoved it in front of Scobie even before he was fully settled on his seat, and Scobie took several deep swallows of this before he answered.

"Price Ringgold. Superintendent of the Crystalline Mine. Order up your breakfast. It's on me."

Scobie needed a shave. He needed a good cleaning up. He sensed Waddell's critical appraisal and showed some irritation.

"How about that badge?" he demanded. "Made up your mind yet?"

"Not quite," Waddell told him carefully. "But I got it in my pocket. What are the chances for lodgings in this camp?"

Scobie considered a moment. "Rufe Belson, he lodged with Mrs.

Crowder. Maybe the room he had is still empty."

"Who's Mrs. Crowder?"

"Widow woman. Lost her husband in a mine cave-in about six months ago. Got a 10-year old boy to look out for. She's been doing washing and ironing."

Waddell went to see her.

Mrs. Kate Crowder was a short, wide woman with a round face and tired eyes. She looked Waddell over carefully, then admitted that the room poor Mr. Belson had used was for rent again. It was what Mr. Belson had paid. Any meals would be extra, of course, but not too much extra, and things would be quiet here, as quiet as any place in the camp.

It was a front corner room, frugally furnished but neat and clean. Waddell gave her a $5 deposit, with the promise to have the balance of a month's rent for her this day.

There was but one way to find out. That was to take on the chore of night man, to pin on the badge resting in the pocket of his shirt. After all, carrying the badge was his trade. And he needed the job. For he had debts to pay, some tangible, some intangible. Yes, he'd pin on the badge.

Get Ready for Annual Laugh Week

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Get your funnybones tuned up folks. You'll want to be ready for the big event coming up April 3-10: National Laugh Week.

Some of you may be out of condition for this, for lack of enough things to laugh about these days. In that case, you'll doubtless want to prepare for the big ha-ha fest.

So here is our handy program of easy exercises, especially designed to ginger up your guffawing by April 3:

For the rest of this week: Try smiling for a minute or two once an hour—while working on your income tax return.

Second week: Turn on a big grin at assorted moments—such as when you keep getting threatening letters about overdue bills.

Third week: Practice giggling—after household disasters, such as junior spilling a gallon of molasses on the living room rug.

Fourth week: Time now for the restrained belly laugh. An excellent occasion would be upon learning you've got to have a new roof put on the house.

Fifth week: You should be ready now for the big showdown test: The howler. Do it while considering that your rich uncle has cut you out of his will.

Friends, if you can do all that, you are obviously ready for National Laugh Week.

National Laugh Week is a project of National Laugh Enterprises of New York. A memo from the NLE says:

"The National Laugh Enterprises was formed in 1945 to promote a national sense of humor. It represents the National Association of Gagwriters, which tries to discover, develop and encourage creative performers and writers in the Seven Laffing Arts—radio-TV, stage, screen, cartoons, literature, music and dance."

The NLE also sponsors meetings at which people get together and laugh, anytime and anywhere they feel like it.

Furthermore, it has a broad program to try to keep people chuckling all the year round: Save the Pun Week in January, National Laugh Week in April, National Humor Week in June and Pass the Laugh Week in October.

Between times, the NLE tries to maneuver the mirth movement with a number of projects.

One of these is, according to the NLE, a "humor report to the nation" presented annually to Congress.

"Remember," says the NLE memo, "humor is therapy. Won't

Calorie Counters' Delight

Charlotte dessert, a calorie-laden delight dating back to early White House days, is now appearing on modern-day tables in a new streamlined form. Like the original, it's a delicacy rich in eye and taste appeal. But its calorie count is cut sharply to please weight-conscious food lovers of today.

Resembling a light pudding, the original was a calorie-rich blend of heavy cream, fruit and gelatine, all molded with cake or ladyfingers. The streamlined Strawberry Charlotte, perfected by the Borden Kitchen, meets the needs of calorie counters by using whipped nonfat dry milk instead of heavy cream for the base. The homogenized-smooth instant nonfat dry milk whips into the desired consistency in a matter of minutes. Freshly picked or quick-frozen strawberries help make this a memorable dessert. Here's how to make, mold and garnish:

Strawberry Charlotte
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

1/4 cup Starlac nonfat dry milk
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup boiling water
1 package ladyfingers
2 (10-oz.) packages frozen sliced strawberries, defrosted
Red food coloring

Combine nonfat dry milk with 1/4 cup of the cold water in small electric mixer bowl; beat on high speed until stiff, about 6 to 8 minutes. Place in refrigerator. Line sides of buttered 2-quart bowl or mold with ladyfingers. Soften gelatine in 1/4 cup cold water. Dissolve softened gelatine and sugar in boiling water. Add strawberries and mix well. Stir over ice water until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Gently fold whipped nonfat dry milk into gelatine mixture. Add food coloring to desired shade. Pour into bowl lined with ladyfingers. Chill in refrigerator 2 1/2 to 3 hours, or until set. Unmold. If desired, garnish with additional whipped nonfat dry milk and strawberries.

Cheese Sparks Meatless Meals

Protein-packed meatless meals have one thing in common: They use cheese as a base. This important food is high in important protein and calcium and a good source of vitamin A and riboflavin. A nutritious and versatile food, cheese can be used as a base for a variety of recipes filled with appetite and eye appeal. As an example, here is a tasty cheese and fish recipe developed by the Borden Kitchen—it combines Swiss or Vera-Sharp Cheese Slices with salmon, another highly nutritious food, in a Salmon-Cheese Pie that's packed with protein and flavor. This pie makes six to eight servings. Serve it with a salad of mixed greens for a deliciously different luncheon or supper meal.

Salmon-Cheese Pie
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

1 (9-inch) unbaked pastry shell
1 egg white, slightly beaten
3/4 cup (1/2 of 8-oz. pkg.) Swiss or Vera-Sharp Cheese Slices, finely shredded
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 tablespoon grated onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup canned salmon, flaked and packed
1 1/4 cups Borden's Homogenized Milk
2 eggs, slightly beaten

Make shell from one 5-ounce stick instant mixing pie crust mix according to package directions. Brush with egg white; reserve remaining egg white. Combine shredded cheese, flour, onion, salt and pepper. Place alternate layers of cheese mixture and salmon in pastry shell. Combine eggs, reserved egg white and milk. Pour into shell. Bake in very hot oven (450°F.) 15 minutes; reduce temperature to 325°F. Bake additional 30 minutes or, until a knife inserted near center, comes out clean. Serve hot.

Asks Action Now on Aid to Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff today urged Congress to move fast on President Kennedy's program for public school aid.

"We cannot afford, in my judgment, to permit any of our children to go even one year longer than necessary without adequate instructional staff and classroom facilities," Ribicoff said in a statement prepared for the opening session of hearings by a Senate subcommittee.

The administration proposes to provide about $2.3 billion for public elementary and secondary schools over a three-year period.

States could use the money for construction of classrooms, teacher salaries or both, and for special projects aimed at solving area educational problems.

The bill also would provide for continued aid in operation and construction in school districts affected by federal activities, but at a reduced level.

Ribicoff opened his lengthy statement with a review of the federal government's role in the support of education, starting four years before adoption of the Constitution with the reservation of a lot in every township for the maintenance of public schools.

"The federal role has been a legitimate and accepted part of the American educational experiment since the founding of the Republic," Ribicoff said.

"These programs of federal assistance to education have, in my judgment, been administered without evidencing one shred of federal control."

He told the subcommittee that in his six years as governor of Connecticut "not once has the federal government exercised control directly or indirectly over education in my state."

In the past decade, Ribicoff said, enrollments in public elementary and secondary schools increased from 25.7 million to 37.6 million, or 46 per cent. Annual expenditures increased during the same period from $6.5 billion to $16.5 billion, or 154 per cent.

"The next decade holds no promise of lessened impact upon our resources available for support of education," Ribicoff said.

"Enrollments in public elementary and secondary schools will increase from 36 million in 1959-60 to 44 million in 1969-70 and will require an additional 437,000 instructional personnel and 600,000 new classrooms by the end of the 10-year period, he said.

Ribicoff said the need of federal aid is evident in statistics showing that while federal taxes have increased 85 per cent in the postwar years, state and local communities have had to increase their tax revenues by 221 per cent. He added that from 1946 to 1959, while the federal debt was increasing by 6 per cent state and local debt soared by more than 300 per cent.

"Property taxes, the traditional source of revenue for education, are in many areas rapidly approaching the limits of reasonableness," Ribicoff said.

The secretary made no reference in his statement to the proposal advanced by Roman Catholic leaders that federal aid in the form of long-term, low-interest loans be provided for private and parochial schools.

He outlined provisions under which assistance would be allocated in such a way as to take account of the total personal income of the citizens of each state in relation to the total number of public pupils in the state. He said the effect would be to provide the lowest income state with almost twice as much assistance for each pupil as the highest income state.

Four Escape From Helena Prison

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—Four prisoners removed bars from a window, then slid down a makeshift rope to escape from the Phillips County jail today.

The escapees are Drew Columbus Hill, 33, held for disposing of mortgaged property and burglarizing a post office at Roe; Richard Wilhite, 34, held on burglary and grand larceny charges; John Joseph Sindler Jr., 24, held on burglary and larceny charges; and Billy Eugene McCurley, 18, held on charges of driving a car without the owner's consent and disturbing the peace.

Sheriff E. P. Hickey said the men took the bars out of the window and tied blankets together to make a rope, then squeezed through the opening and slid to the ground from the second story cell.

A pickup truck stolen during the night was believed to have been taken by the escapees.

Turned Out to Be Good Swap

NEW YORK (AP)—Irving Kertesz likes music and he hesitated only briefly when an employee offered him an old violin in lieu of $35 he owed him.

Kertesz gave the violin to his daughter, Iona, 11, a student at the Juilliard School of Music. She liked it, too, and practiced on it often.

She took it to school. Her teacher also was fascinated by the violin. She urged the Kertesz family to have it appraised.

An expert looked it over and certified the instrument as a genuine Guadagnini—200 years old and worth $10,000.

The expert also said it had been stolen last Dec. 30 from the home of Jesse Ceci, a second violinist with the New York Philharmonic.

Should Have Left That Billfold

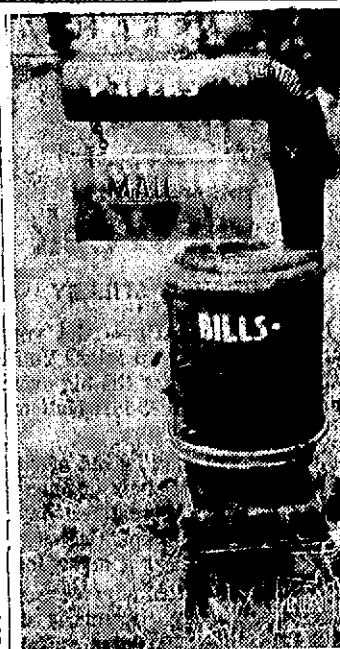

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Guadalupe Longoria Acosta complained bitterly to the FBI that police held his billfold although he had been released from jail.

An agent accompanied Acosta to the county jail where Acosta had been freed following questions about government checks stolen from mail boxes.

But only the agent left the jail. Acosta was placed under $5,000 bond after arraignment on charges of forging and passing a U.S. Treasury check.

The FBI explained that positive identification of Acosta had just been made when he telephoned about his billfold.

Blankets Now Welcome Soap and Water

AFTER A SIEGE OF COLDS OR VIRUS, it's a good feeling to know that everything in the sickroom is spick and span again. The wise homemaker includes her blankets in this soap-and-water spree, especially if they are easy-care blankets of "Orlon" acrylic fiber.

Washing the family blankets—a once-a-year chore in grandmother's day—is as easy as making the bed today, with modern laundry equipment and fiber-sealed blankets of "Orlon." The most washable blankets ever, they go right into the washing machine and dryer, and come out fresh, soft and fluffy, without shrinking. Because they resist matting and fuzzing, they retain the soft bulk that means warmth in blankets. Recons makes them in white and eight lower colors that keep their bloom through laundering.

HOME ON THE RANGE

may mean a western song to many people, but to the little woman in the kitchen it conjures up that all too regular chore of cleaning the stove. Here are some timely hints to make the job easier.

KEEP SURFACES CLEAN as you work. Have a piece of foil on the range to hold stirring spoons between uses. But when food dries on the range top, let the plastic mesh ball, Tufty—which never scratches—come to your rescue.

FOLLOW MANUFACTURER'S directions when taking range apart for cleaning. Most of the parts are cleaned easily by washing in sudsy water. Take off stubborn spots with S.O.S. blue soap pads.

SPECIAL BROILER HINT: Never leave the pan in the hot broiler during a meal. Remove it with the food and pour off fat. When cool, soak in sudsy water, then remove charred on food or grease with blue oval soap pads.

House Ousts No Income Tax Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A resolution asking Congress to repeal the federal income tax and to take the government out of competition with private business was defeated 55-28 in the Arkansas House today.

The resolution had passed the Senate 15-11 Tuesday.

Pulaski County Rep. Glenn Walther urged adoption of the resolution. He said the income tax yields $30 billion a year and that the government operates 79,000 corporations which are losing $29 billion a year.

Benton County Rep. Hardy Croxton noted that Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., is chairman of the tax writing House Ways and Means committee and said that the Arkansas Legislature should not adopt a resolution which might put pressure on Mills.

Pulaski County Rep. Ben Allen said any move to decrease federal revenues might destroy the Arkansas River Development Program.

Fleeman in Good Condition Now

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rep. Eugene C. Fleeman, 53, of Mississippi County, was in good condition today in a hospital here. A doctor said he had some chest congestion.

Fleeman was admitted to the hospital Tuesday after he was stricken at a hotel. The doctor said Fleeman's illness had not been diagnosed as a heart attack and that it would be several days before a diagnosis could be made.

Potato Glamour For Salmon Loaf

To give the old-fashioned salmon loaf a modern touch, "frost" it with instant whipped potatoes. This "frosting" is easier to make than it sounds, if the homemaker has a package of instant whipped potato flakes at her fingertips. Just bring water to a boil, add cold milk, empty an envelope of the instant potato flakes into the liquid—and lightly whip with a fork. Then just swirl the instantly made whipped potatoes over the top and sides of the loaf. Here's the quick and easy recipe developed by the Borden Kitchen:

Salmon Loaf With Whipped Potato Topping
(Makes 6 servings)

2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 (one-pound) can salmon, well drained and flaked
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup finely chopped sweet gherkins
1/2 cup milk

1 egg
1 teaspoon butter
3 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter
2 envelopes Instant Whipped Potato Flakes

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in small skillet; add onion and saute until tender. In a bowl, combine salmon, bread crumbs, sweet gherkins, 1/2 cup milk, egg and 1 teaspoon butter. Add onion mixture. Butter 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Lightly pack salmon mixture in pan; cover top with aluminum foil. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for one hour or until lightly browned and firm. (Remove aluminum foil during last 30 minutes of baking.) Remove from oven. Loosen loaf from sides of pan with spatula. Turn out onto warm platter. POTATO TOPPING: Combine water and 1 teaspoon salt in large saucepan. Bring to boil. Remove from heat. Add 1 cup milk immediately. Add 2 tablespoons butter and potato flakes. Stir with fork until liquid is absorbed. Whip briskly. With fork, swirl potatoes over top and sides of loaf. If desired, garnish with parsley and sliced olives.

Weather May Be Factor in Job Program

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Present weather conditions, mild in the East but wintry in many sections of the Midwest, may hold the key to whether President Kennedy takes more drastic recession recovery measures.

Unemployment continued to worsen in February, climbing by 320,000 to 5,705,000, highest idle figure in 20 years. What happens in March will largely depend upon weather conditions — approaching springtime normally opens up outdoor job opportunities.

Kennedy has promised to make a new critical appraisal of the economy in April to determine whether broader economic recovery steps are needed. The March job figures due in early April are likely to weigh heavily in this decision.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said Tuesday, in announcing the new job data for February that "naturally the administration hopes that seasonal factors, meaning favorable spring weather and pre-Easter buying, will tend to diminish the economic downturn."

Goldberg's gloomy report of the February job picture, aggravated probably by bitter winter, snows, came as the Senate Finance Committee prepared to hold a one-day hearing on the administration's plan to speed an additional $1 billion unemployment compensation benefits to idled workers.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said he anticipated no serious opposition to the proposal, with committee approval expected Thursday and quick Senate action early next week. The bill has already passed the House.

Goldberg reported this job situation in February:

Employment—up 200,000 from January to a record for February of 64,655,000.

Unemployment—up 320,000 to 5,705,000, highest idle total since the summer of 1941—just before World War II at the tag end of the great depression. The January-February increase in unemployment was about triple the normal increase for this period.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment rose from 6.6 per cent of the work force in January to 6.8 per cent in February. Unemployment is 1,800,000 higher than a year ago.
